Dr. Rajiv Banker is internationally recognized for his interdisciplinary research in Accounting, Management Information Systems and Management Science. He has published more than 150 articles and cited over 150 times a year in published research papers. One of his papers is ranked fourth highest in citations in the 50-year history of Management Science. Dr. Banker is recognized by the ISI Web of Science as one of only 243 scholars in management and economics for fundamental contribution to the discipline.

Dr. J. David Cummins was recently recognized as the #1 researcher in the world in the field of Risk and Insurance in a recent article in the Journal of Risk and Insurance. His research focuses on Insurance Economics; Financial Risk Management; Productivity and Efficiency; and Securitization. He also served as the past President of the American Risk and Insurance Association, and has been a visiting scholar at the Federal Reserve Banks of New York, Philadelphia and Atlanta.

Dr. Masaaki "Mike" Kotabe is a preeminent researcher in both international business and marketing. Most notably, Dr. Kotabe has written many scholarly books and over 100 articles. He was elected a Fellow of the Academy of International Business for his contributions to international business research and education. He is an elected member of the New York Academy of Sciences and currently serves as the chief editor of the Journal of International Management.
The Fox School is home to 8 prestigious academic and professional journals:

ACADEMIC JOURNALS

Journal of Economics and Business
Journal of International Management
Journal of Product Innovation Management
Journal of Risk Finance
Risk Management and Insurance Review

PROFESSIONAL JOURNALS

Benefits Quarterly
The Financier
The Securitization Conduit

Ranked #4 in Research Productivity of Finance Faculty, Academic Analytics, 2007