ABOUT THE FOX SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The Fox School of Business at Temple University has a longstanding tradition of preparing professionals with the power to lead tomorrow’s economy. With a reputation for strong work ethics and roll-up-your-sleeves attitudes, we advance the world of business and transform lives through education.
ACCOUNT FOR SUCCESS
Get CPA-ready—and get career-ready, too. With a Master of Accountancy degree from the Fox School of Business, you’ll gain the knowledge and resources you need to launch a rewarding career in accounting. In addition to the 30-credit curriculum, which features credits that apply toward CPA license requirements, our program includes built-in review courses that will prepare you to pass all four parts of the CPA Exam in just one year. Our vast alumni base, personalized career services, and our close-knit recruitment partnerships with top-tier firms will help you propel your success in the accounting profession.

AT A GLANCE
• Full-time program completed in just three semesters
• 30-credit curriculum that applies toward CPA license requirements
• CPA review courses built into the program schedule
• Individualized attention from our top-ranked career service resources
• Merit and need-based scholarships

GET CPA-READY
The Fox Master of Accountancy degree delivers the tools that will set the groundwork for you to earn your CPA license. With review courses incorporated within the program, you’ll be ready to pass all parts of your CPA Exam by the time you’ve completed the program—just like the 70 percent of our graduates who have passed all four parts of the exam, surpassing the national pass rate by more than 15 percent. Plus, with program credits counting toward CPA licensure requirements, you’ll be on your way to becoming a CPA in no time.

GET CAREER-READY
Generate your ideal career through customized and personalized career services. You’ll work one-on-one with a career coach from the Center for Student Professional Development to polish your professional presentation and find the full-time position that meets your goals. Take advantage of personalized counseling, impression management, and accounting networking events to make an impact on your professional path—and position yourself for a career with a Big Four, national, or regional public accounting firm or accounting industry position.
