POWER IN NUMBERS

The FOX MASTER OF SCIENCE IN FINANCIAL ANALYSIS AND RISK MANAGEMENT (MSFA-RM) offers students a unique opportunity to stand apart in today’s financial marketplace. The Fox MSFA-RM sets a new standard for programs supporting professional certifications. MSFA-RM students may complete CFA® Level I, II & III and FRM® Part I & II exams over the program’s 22-month timeframe.

DISCOVER THE POWER OF FOX®

www.fox.temple.edu/MSFARM
215-204-5890
UNIQUE AND INNOVATIVE CURRICULUM
Financial institutions rely on fundamental and quantitative financial analysis to support strategic business decisions. They depend on financial modeling and computational methods to manage risk and safeguard their financial health. Our 22-month MSFA-RM program explores the financial analysis and risk management principles driving today’s global capital and derivative markets. MSFA-RM students enjoy an innovative curriculum covering:

Corporate Finance
- Risk Management
  - Financial Institutions and Risk
  - Value at Risk
  - Quant Risk Modeling
  - Enterprise Risk Management

Applied Corporate Finance
- Derivative Models
  - Stochastic Calculus
  - Continuous Time Finance
  - Numerical Methods
  - Stochastic Volatility
  - Structured Products

Corporate Value Management
- Statistical Analysis
  - Financial Econometrics
  - Financial Time Series

Entrepreneurial Companies
- Professional Skills
  - Ethics and Leadership

Investments
- Investments
  - Investment Management
  - Alternative Investments
  - Quantitative Portfolios
  - Behavioral Finance

Global Markets
- Quant Fixed Income
- Structured Finance

Financial Institutions and Risk
- Risk Management
  - Financial Institutions and Risk
  - Value at Risk
  - Quant Risk Modeling
  - Enterprise Risk Management

Value at Risk
- Derivative Models
  - Stochastic Calculus
  - Continuous Time Finance
  - Numerical Methods
  - Stochastic Volatility
  - Structured Products

Quant Risk Modeling
- Statistical Analysis
  - Financial Econometrics
  - Financial Time Series

Enterprise Risk Management
- Professional Skills
  - Ethics and Leadership

Derivative Models
- Risk Management
  - Financial Institutions and Risk
  - Value at Risk
  - Quant Risk Modeling
  - Enterprise Risk Management

Quantitative Portfolios
- Statistical Analysis
  - Financial Econometrics
  - Financial Time Series

Behavioral Finance
- Professional Skills
  - Ethics and Leadership

Global Markets
- Quant Fixed Income
- Structured Finance

Structured Finance
- Risk Management
  - Financial Institutions and Risk
  - Value at Risk
  - Quant Risk Modeling
  - Enterprise Risk Management

Structured Products
- Statistical Analysis
  - Financial Econometrics
  - Financial Time Series

Professional Skills
- Ethics and Leadership

REAL-WORLD LEARNING
The MSFA-RM program integrates cutting-edge financial theory and industry practice for a dynamic educational experience. The MSFA-RM industry speaker series and the Fox School’s Capital Markets Trading Room reflect the program’s emphasis on applied learning.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS
Fox MSFA-RM students experience a dynamic curriculum that supports leading professional designations. MSFA-RM coursework offers students the option to pursue CFA® Level I and II exams during the program’s first year. In the second year, MSFA-RM students may pass the CFA® Level III and FRM® Part I & II exams. Professional certification is further supported with weekly CFA® and FRM® exam review sessions.

CAREER ADVANTAGE AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
MSFA-RM students enjoy individualized educational support and career counseling tailored to their unique program—a special commitment and dedication that is a hallmark of our professional masters programs in finance. The Fox School’s Center for Student Professional Development also provides career/professional development services to help students develop the requisite skills to find rewarding employment at graduation.

APPLICATION DEADLINES
Fall Deadlines:
- January 31—Early Decision/Scholarship Priority Deadline
- March 1—International Applicants
- May 31—All Domestic Applicants
- June 30—Late Deadline

APPLICATION CHECKLIST
Application Form—It is recommended that all prospective applicants apply online: http://www.fox.temple.edu/apply. Please include all institutions of higher education in which you were enrolled in six credits or more, including telephone numbers, e-mail and mailing addresses.

Test Scores must be sent directly by ETS or Pearson VUE to Temple University using the appropriate school codes:
- GMAT—school code varies by program
- GRE—ETS school code 2906-4201
  - Required if bachelor’s degree awarded outside of the US:
    - TOEFL (ETS school code: 2906-02) or
    - IELTS (Int’l English Language Testing System)
    - Required TOEFL minimum: 600 (paper), 250 (computer), 100 (internet)
    - Required IELTS minimum 7.5

Official transcripts—All colleges and universities in which you enrolled with 6 credits or more. International applicants must submit independent academic evaluations from WES (www.wes.org) or ECE (www.ece.org) with their transcripts/marksheets if they miss the March 1st application deadline.

Two Letters of Reference—Professional references are preferred, though academic references are also acceptable. References should be able to evaluate or assess the applicant’s on-the-job performance or academic abilities. Narrative letters to the admissions committee or Fox reference forms are accepted.

Essays—There is one required essay and one optional statement. Current essay topics and questions are listed online.

Current Professional Resume

Interview—Admissions interviews are by invitation.

Application Fee—$60.00 USD, payable to Temple University (non-refundable).

CONTACT INFORMATION
Temple University
Fox School of Business, Graduate Admissions
1801 Liacouras Walk
701 Alter Hall (006-22)
Philadelphia, PA 19122 USA
Phone: (215) 204-5890
Fax: (215) 204-1632
Email: foxinfo@temple.edu

For specific program and curriculum questions contact: John Soss, Director of the Fox Professional Finance Suite, 215-204-8453 or jsoss@temple.edu