

DANIEL M. ISAACS

EDUCATION

Brooklyn Law School, Brooklyn, NY
J.D. 1991

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
M.S. in Education, May 2012

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
Master of Environmental Studies, August 2013

Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, PA
B.A. Government, 1988

WORK EXPERIENCE

Temple University Fox School of Business

Associate Professor (May 27, 2020-Present)

Assistant Professor (July 1, 2014-May 2020)

Course development and teaching. Subjects taught include Legal and Ethical Foundations of Business, Contracts, Corporate Governance, Sustainability in Business, and Legal Studies Capstone to undergraduates and masters level students.

Temple University Fox School of Business

Academic Director Full-time MBA Program (June 2018 to Present)

Assistant Academic Director Full-time MBA Program (July 2017 to June 2018)

Continuously innovate curriculum to maintain academic program and help students develop required competencies and skills. Responsibilities include coordination and collaboration with the Dean's Office concerning faculty decisions and training, meeting with faculty and students to assess progress and gain feedback for program management purposes, attending MBA events, working with Career Services and Fox Management Consulting to engage students actively in professional development, experiential learning, and career management.

Weir & Partners, LLP, Philadelphia, PA

June 2011-June 2014

Of Counsel

Represented financial institutions in contract disputes arising out of loan origination agreements and underlying residential real estate transactions. Shared responsibility for client development in the firm's financial institution litigation practice.

White and Williams LLP, Philadelphia, PA

April 2003 – June 2011

Associate

Represented clients in contract disputes and broad range of complex commercial litigation matters, including actions sounding in contract and tort by financial institutions to recover funds from originating banks and environmental and mass tort insurance coverage matters.

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, West Conshohocken, PA-Law Clerk April 2001- March 2003

Law Clerk for Honorable Sandra Schultz Newman

Drafted opinions and bench briefs on civil, criminal and constitutional appellate issues.

The Bank of New York, New York, NY

Counsel

September 1996- March 2001

Defended the Bank and its affiliates and instituted affirmative litigation on their behalf. Responsible for handling claims prior to and throughout the litigation process as well as providing day-to-day advice to internal departments. Represented the Bank in check and wire transfer cases and other disputes arising out of the Bank's business relationships including labor, employment, and securities issues. Duties also included advising Bank's internal security officers and assisted them in their investigations of external fraudulent activities and employee violations of the Bank's Code of Conduct. Reviewed suspicious activity reports involving internal and external misconduct.

Cozen & O'Connor, New York, NY

October 1994-August 1996

Managed subrogation caseload and served as local counsel. Represented clients in insurance defense and commercial and employment contract cases.

Lichtenberg & Ginach, New York, NY

September 1992- October 1994

Researched and wrote memoranda of law and drafted and argued motions in federal and state court. Areas of practice included labor and contract litigation and enforcement of promissory notes, and foreign judgments.

Professor Michael Gerber, Brooklyn Law School (Research Assistant)

October 1991-February 1992

Performed legal research and writing to assist in the production of a bankruptcy law casebook.

PUBLICATIONS:

Nonprofit Organizations Should Prioritize Governance in Board Selection Decisions—Those That Prioritize Money May Pay Too Much, FORDHAM JOURNAL OF CORPORATE AND FINANCIAL LAW (October 2022) (with Heidi Grunwald).

When Government Contractors May or May Not Spend Money on Political Speech, 161 JOURNAL OF BUSINESS ETHICS 91 (2018).

The Use of Economics in Defense of GM's Decisions not to Fix Faulty Ignition Switches Demonstrates that Economics Is Not a Moral Theory, 47 CONN. L. REV. ONLINE 51 (2014).

Rebalancing Current Limitations Periods to Reflect a Society that Values its Members as Much as their Money, 44 STETSON L. REV. 43 (2014).

An Unexpected Friend Liberalism's Response to Corporate Political Spending, 47 SUFFOLK L. REV. 305 (2014).

Hypothetical Efficiency is Not Grounds for Breach, 116 WEST VIRGINIA L. REV. 363 (2013).

CONFERENCES SPEAKING/PRESENTATIONS

“Supporting Ethical Decisions”

Society of Corporate Compliance and Eth Philadelphia Regional Conference, 2019 Annual Conference

“Working Together to Build the Best Transit Systems in the World and for the World”

Innovation Workshop for Executive Officers of SEPTA (Pennsylvania), NJT (New Jersey), MTA (New York), CTA (Chicago), CTDOT(Connecticut), MBTA (Massachusetts), METRA (Chicago), TTC (Toronto) April 25, 2018.

“Supporting Ethical Decisions for Yourself and Your Staff”

The Gift of Life Executive Ethics Training, October 2017 and 2019.

“Does Zero Risk Tolerance Minimize Risk.”

United States Federal Reserve Bank National Education Program Ethics Session Speaker. May 2016

“The Importance of Educating Future Business Leaders Beyond Citizens United.”

Roundtable at New York University's Stern School of Business. February 2015

Article Presentation: “Rebalancing Current Limitations Periods to Reflect a Society that Values its Members as Much as their Money” 2014 Mid-Atlantic ALSB Regional Conference, Baltimore

Article Presentation: “Hypothetical Efficiency is Not Grounds for Breach”
2013 ALSB National Conference, Boston
Member of Ethics and CSR panel

ARTICLE REVIEWER

- American Business Law Journal
- Journal of Business Ethics Education