

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT MODEL

Impression Management

Development of written, oral, visual and non-verbal communications that persuade and inspire others.

Career & Industry Awareness

Demonstration of an understanding of the workplace, various industries and career options through exploration, research and experiential learning.

Personal Development

Use of self-reflection to develop a course of action to improve specific skills that increase one's potential.