

WHAT IS A BUSINESS ELECTIVE?

For Core Students Only

Business electives are courses NUMBERED 3000 – 4000 taught by departments in the Fox School of Business and Management:

- Accounting
- Actuarial Science
- Business Administration
- Economics
- Finance
- Healthcare Management
- Human Resource
- International Business
- Law SBM
- Management Information Systems
- Marketing
- Real Estate
- Risk Management
- Statistics
- Strategic Management

EXCEPTIONS – The following business courses numbered below 3000 can be used to satisfy business electives for Core Students:

Actuarial Science 1501, 2501, 2101, 2502
Accounting 2521
Human Resource Management 2501, 2511
International Business Administration 2501, 2502
Law SBA 1102
Management Information Systems 2101, 2501, 2502
Marketing 2511
Strategic Management 2501, 2502
Statistics 2512, 2521, 2522, 2523