

DANIEL M. ISAACS
1131 Norsam Road
Gladwyne, Pa. 19035
267-808-8662 isaacsd@izzy.com

EDUCATION

Brooklyn Law School, Brooklyn, NY
J.D. 1991

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
Master of Environmental Studies, August 2013

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
M.S. in Education, May 2012

Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, PA
B.A. Government, 1988

WORK EXPERIENCE

Temple University Fox School of Business

Academic Director Full-time MBA Program (June 2018 to Present)

Assistant Academic Director Full-time MBA Program (July 2017 to June 2018)

Work to continuously innovate curriculum, as needed to provide top academic program, which endures students' acquisition of required competencies and skills, coordination and collaboration with the Dean's Office, ensuring that the best faculty teach in the program, meeting with students regularly to assess progress and gain feedback for program management purposes, attending MBA events and assuring attendance by program faculty, working with CSPD and Fox Management Consulting to engage students actively in professional development, experiential learning, and career management.

Temple University Fox School of Business

Assistant Professor Legal Studies (July 1, 2014-Present)

Design and teach Business Law, Corporate Governance, Contracts, Sustainability in Business, and Legal and Ethical Foundations of Business courses to undergraduates and masters level students. Research normative ethics, corporate governance, and industrial ecology.

Temple University Fox School of Business

Director Corporate Governance Compliance and Regulatory Policy MBA Concentration

(August 1, 2014-Present)

Direct Corporate Governance Compliance and Regulatory Policy concentration in MBA program. Duties include program and curriculum development, design, and administration.

Weir & Partners, LLP, Philadelphia, PA

June 2011-June 2014

Of Counsel

Represented financial institutions in contract disputes arising out of loan origination agreements and underlying residential real estate transactions. Shared responsibility for client development in the firm's financial institution litigation practice.

White and Williams LLP, Philadelphia, PA

April 2003 – June 2011

Associate Commercial Litigation Department

Represented clients in contract disputes and broad range of complex commercial litigation matters, including actions sounding in contract and tort by financial institutions to recover funds from originating banks and environmental/mass tort insurance coverage matters.

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, West Conshohocken, PA--Law Clerk April 2001- March 2003

Drafted opinions and bench briefs on constitutional and civil and criminal appellate issues.

The Bank of New York, New York, NY

Corporate Security Counsel

February 2000 – March 2001

Served as counsel to the Bank's Corporate Security Department. Advised Bank's internal security officers, and assisted them in their investigations of external fraudulent activities and employee violations of the Bank's Code of Conduct. Reviewed suspicious activity reports involving internal and external misconduct.

Litigation Counsel

September 1996- March 2001

Defended the Bank and its affiliates and instituted affirmative litigation on their behalf. Responsible for handling claims prior to and throughout the litigation process as well as providing day-to-day advice to internal departments. Duties included conducting settlement negotiations, drafting pleadings, taking depositions, drafting motions and memoranda of law, and serving as trial and appellate counsel. Represented the Bank in check and wire transfer cases and other disputes arising out of the Bank's business relationships including labor, employment, and securities issues.

Cozen & O'Connor, New York, NY

October 1994-August 1996

Managed subrogation caseload and served as local counsel. Represented clients in insurance defense and commercial and employment contract cases.

Lichtenberg & Ginach, New York, NY

September 1992- October 1994

Researched and wrote memoranda of law and drafted and argued motions in federal and state court. Areas of practice included labor and contract litigation and enforcement of promissory notes, and foreign judgments.

Professor Michael Gerber, Brooklyn Law School (Research Assistant)

October 1991-February 1992

Performed legal research and writing to assist in the production of a bankruptcy law casebook.

PUBLICATIONS:

When Government Contractors May or May Not Spend Money On Political Speech (Journal of Business Ethics, June 2018)

A Market Approach to Billboard Light, 46:1 Real Estate Law Journal 6-31 (2017) (with Michael Valenza)

The Use of Economics in Defense of GM's Decisions not to Fix Faulty Ignition Switches Demonstrates that Economics Is Not a Moral Theory (University of Connecticut Law Rev. Online April 2015)

Rebalancing Current Limitations Periods to Reflect a Society that Values its Members as Much as their Money (Stetson Law Review, Spring 2015)

An Unexpected Friend Liberalism's Response to Corporate Political Spending (Suffolk University Law Review, April 2014)

Hypothetical Efficiency is Not Grounds for Breach (West Virginia Law Review, Oct. 2013)

Madame Justice Sandra Schultz Newman and Daniel Mark Isaacs, Historical Overview of the Judicial Selection Process In The United States: Is The Electoral System In Pennsylvania Unjustified? 49 Vill. L. Rev. 1 (2004).

CONFERENCES SPEAKING/PRESENTATIONS

Innovation Workshop for Executive Officers of SEPTA (Pennsylvania), NJT (New Jersey), MTA (New York), CTA (Chicago), CTDOT(Connecticut), MBTA (Massachusetts), METRA (Chicago), TTC (Toronto) "Working Together to Build the Best Transit Systems in the World and for the World" April 25, 2018.

Supporting Ethical Decisions for Yourself and Your Staff," The Gift of Life Executive Ethics Training, October 5, 2017.

May 10, 2016 United States Federal Reserve Bank National Education Program Ethics Session Speaker. Topic: "Does Zero Risk Tolerance Minimize Risk."

February 2015 Roundtable at New York University's Stern School of Business.

Member of session panel addressing “The Importance of Educating Future Business Leaders Beyond Citizens United.”

2014 Mid-Atlantic ALSB Regional Conference, Baltimore Presented article: Rebalancing Current Limitations Periods to Reflect a Society that Values its Members as Much as their Money.

Carol and Lawrence Zicklin Center for Business Ethics Research Works-in-Progress Workshop participant at the Wharton School of Business Law and Ethics Department, University of Pennsylvania.

2013 ALSB National Conference, Boston

Member of Ethics and CSR panel presenting Article, Hypothetical Efficiency is Not Grounds for Breach

ARTICLE REVIEWER

- American Business Law Journal
- Journal of Business Ethics Education
- 2014 ALSB National Conference, Ethics Section Reviewer for the Virginia Maurer Best Ethics Paper Award.